

Security Incident Response

Canon Medical Systems provides a global Product Security Incident Response Team (PSIRT). Canon Medical Systems USA provides this team at no cost to all of our customer's.

As the Cybersecurity threats continue to grow, Canon Medical Systems continues to monitor and assess these risks. If at any time, our customers would like to inquire regarding any posted threat or vulnerability, please email CybersecurityRiskManagement@us.medical.canon. We offer a timely response and investigation. If deemed applicable, a Security Advisory will be created and posted.
